copy chiefly from the Courier.
The news by this vessel goes to show that the existence of cholera in London is doubtful, or if it exists there, that it is in a very mitigated form. On this subject a Lidisease, is only 1496; and supposing these to have been all cases of cholera, which is more than doubtful, the result is by no more parcy; space at is certain tary, even in order and its parcy times, a fir gir der number fall victims [zens,] to the typhus fever and other negladies of the [At] This is cold comfort to be sure; bout the cholers, which has done, and will do, far more mischief than the disease itself " Seven cases of the cholera had occurred in

A private correspondent from Liverpool larmed; the scallet and typhus fevers are much more frequent, and almost as fatal, ret occurred there. The government of France has issued new quarantime resolution. France has issued new quarantine regulations in regard to vessels arriving from Englandthey are, however, of a very moderate char--Vessels from the supposed infected districts are subjected to a quarantine of ter days; those from less suspicious parts to five: despatches and papers are to be pierced and undergo a fumigation of aromatics, or be pass. ed through vinegar.
The different clauses of the reform bill had

The different clauses of the Fourier research through the committee of the House of Commons; that hour, however, was still occupied with the schedules to the falls the schedules contain the names of the places to be disfranchised or enfrauentsed, and of course afford soff dent room for objections on the nut of the anti-reformers. The ministers part of the anti-reformers. have still large majorities in the lower house, and carefully abstain from making their in tentions known as to the manner in which they intend to carry the bill through the House

The alldes of Holland and Belgium still The alters of Holland and Belgein still remain in a state of inscertainty. The former power, it appears, is strengthening the fortifications of Flushing which command the entrance of the Schelds, and taking other entrance of the Section and indicate pre-paration for important events in the spring. Amongst our extracts will be found one which states that the Austrian troops had evacuated Romagna, leaving a garrison in Bo-logna alone, and that the French expedition to Italy had been countermanded. We have no means of judging of the correctness of this statement, it does not appear to come

Paris remains quiet; but the provinces of the South and West were still the scene of occasional disturbances. A conflict is said to have taken place between the King's troops and the Carlists at Perpignan, in which some

A disease which has broken out in the Aus trian provinces of Gallicia appears to be of a more alarming nature than the much dreaded

It is not believed that Russia will ratify the Protocols. A new one had been issued The French and English governments had formally signified to the court of Spain their determination not to permit Ferdinand to send troops to the assistance of Mignel. A treaty for mutual assistance was known to exist between the two latter, and though troops had not been openly sent into Portugal, yet large hodies of Spaniards were arriving privately on different points of the frontiers.

The Hibernia had arrived at Liverpool, and on the subject. carried the news of the dissent of the Senate to Mr. Van Buren's nomination.

wers have determ the the affairs of Greece; to appoint a King, and support him. Otho, the second son of the Kingof Bavaria, was selected to fill the throne. He is but 17 years of age.

From the English Chronicle. There is great reason now to believe that of the Republic of America was all the cases of cholera which have recently by the Americans resident here. occurred in London are cases of native cho occurred in London are cases of native cholers, aggravated by the distresses of the times and the peculiar unhealthiness of the season. Medical men of the first eminence have denied that any case has been proved to be identical with the dreadful pestilence which has been for years the scourge of the Indian peninsuls, and which still ravages a portion of the European continent.

The Prench Government has made a high-large agreement to English traces of the connective that ly satisfactory concession to English traces.—

Liverpool Mercury.

The Prench Government has made a high-large of the Polish soldiers who are no longer, and have already been long in the service, to enter into the Russian army for the Polish soldiers who are no longer, and have already been long in the peace, and first in the hearts of his country-live for them to 10 or 15 years.

The Prench Government has made a high-large of the Poles through Germany by satisfactory concession to English trades.—

The passage of the Poles has been for many of the Poles has been for man quarantine regulations to be imposed in Help land. At Antwerp, by order of the Belgian Government, it is to be for a period of forty days; and into the port of Ostend all vessels from the Thames, of whatever description, a are refused admission. This is owing powerer, to there being no station near to Ostend very mitigated form. On this subject a Liverpool paper observes: "We cannot better show the exaggerated nature of the cholera-phobia, now prevalent, than by a reference to the report of the Central Board of Health, dated Wednesday, from which it appears that though this alleged terrific and contagious disease has now been in London, or said to have been there, for more than a furtnight, ports of the Mediterranean, until they bear > Glasgow, 20th Feb. Total, 48: died, 10: recovered 15; remain ing, 14 [The disease seems to be confined principally to the Bridgegate and Goose Dubbs.

on the 19th February, there was only 1 new of the 15th, user died 1; recovered, 1; and remaining, 1. Brens, 1. In the small hilldings in the vicinity of the 12th, speak of a resolution that has been Glasgow, few cases were occurring at Wood-taken to arm all the forts that are in our pos-emaining 6.

PORTORPLIO, from 13th to 18th Feb.

Musering on, Feb. 18.—Total cases 432; hed 190; recovered 232.

Happingrox, Feb. 17.-Tital cases 4041

C. died 7: remaining 0.

Another lot goes in a short time.

Glaszon Chron. Teb. 20. HOUSE OF COMMONS. Monday, Peb. 20.—Col. Evans gave no-tice that he would on Tuesday present a pe-tition from several medical men, praying for niry into the alleged existence of cho-

Mr. Robinson thought that as considerable and the influence doubt existed in the city, and also amongst the some weather. medical met, whether the cholera had really made its appearance in London at all, and al so whether it was a contagious disease, some ficility should be afforded at the Custom House in giving bills of health to vessels quitting the port of London.

Mr. P. Thompson would not take upo himself to decide whether the cholera existe in London or not, but ministers had adopted every mode of obtaining accurate information on the subject, by consulting the ablest medical men who had seen the disease in India; and they could not, with propriety and good faith towards other countries, have pursued as supposed to have been countermanded, and deferring the final ratification until the 15th ny other course than that which they had tak-

Mr Hume said that the public had no confidence in the Board of Health, which conthat additional members of a contrary opinithe intention of their government might be, nught to be appointed.

Sir Robert Peel said that the question was whether the disease was the spasmodic cholera or not, and expressed a hope that the board fort, stifled at once the feeble revolt, and of health would honestly state their opinions by the Americans resident here. Mr. Ogden, the efficient and able representative of den, the efficient and in this town, entertained a

WARSAW, Feb. 7.—His Majesty the Em-

THE HAOUE, Feb. 16.

Accounts from Flushing say:—That the fortifications and means of defence in and about this fortifications. bout this fortress are to be considerably in-cressed; heavily armed block ships stationed though this alleged terrine and to disease has now been in London, or said to have been there, for more than a fortnight, but of a population of nearly two millions, out of a population of nearly two millions. ing the river, are to hinder the approach to the town; we also hear that the place is to receive only lorty two cases had occurred, that there expect them to be of the most rigid kind, and refer keeping the vessels with their cargoes the total amount of cases remaining; and that the total amount of cases remaining; in England and Scotland, wes 123. The total number of deadles, since the commencement of danger.

CHOLERA IN SCOTLAND.

a numerous garrison, and be well provisioned.

—The Eurydice. Comet and Proserpine, menof-war, have already resumed their stations in the Scheldt, and the Medusa, bomb-boat stations in the Scheldt. ountry, to serve as volunteers on board the ships lately put into active service.'

General Count Orloff, Aid-de-Camp of his of the Netherlands, arrived here on the night

Barns, 14th .- Accounts from Zealand of ision slong the Scheldt, and on the coast of Dutch Flanders and elsewhere, and still considerable, when compared with the population. Up to January 14th the total number garrisoned and turnished with cannon.

zens, and country people, have died. This disorder (in the circles of Boeznitz and Tarnow) is ascribed to the great fatigues endured the extremely low diet of the Polish peasant, and the influence of the damp and unwhole-

TTALY. That firm figure of General Sebastiani Globe. The Austrians are present, and in force-order consequently reigns in Italy.
THE PAPAL STATES.

The retirement of the main body of the Austrians from the Romagna is confirmed by the French papers, and it appears that Bolog-na alone remains garrisoned by a very small ent to the Morea. Austria, it appears did ampaign in the susceptible legations of Ithe intention of their government might be, would lean rather to foment resistance to, than favour the oppressions of despotism. have now left France without a pretext for sending troops, or making a lodgment in the the Council Office; and there will be great Ministerial Journals lay great stress, contend, Affairs had signified to the Spanish Ambassas, dissatisfaction among them if what they continue of the French that considerable progress towards disarmation of the French is the stress of th Ministerial Journals lay great stress, contend Affairs had signified to the Spanish Ambassas that tonsiderable progress towards disarmation from the progress towards disarmation from the progress towards disarmation from the progress towards of the progress of the second to permit the king of Spain for the second to permit the control of the second to permit by him (Marshal Soult) lately to the soldiers and sub-officers which would prove any thing but a conviction that the services of the army were not likely to be required.

HOLLAND AND BELGIUM.

The Hagus Feb. 20 doubt of the existence of a treaty between Ferdinand and Don Miguel, by which they bound themselves mutually to assist each other. Up to that time, however, Ferdinand had not openly sent any troops to Portugal, but large bodies of Spaniards were arriving privately and different swints on the frontiers. privately on different points on the frontiers. This important fact has been formally comnunicated to Lord Palmerston and Gen. Se- character and appearance.

From the London Meropolitan for February. PROGRESS OF THE CHOLERA IN ENGLAND. Whatever opinions may be entertained respecting the spasmodic cholera, and they appear to be various, our original anticipations most valuable metal, not for its direct, bet nave hitherto fully met the results; for Me disease, although it now occupies from twet - less than it is, if we could not purchase iron ty to thirty villages in the neighbourhood of with it .- Gold then receives its chief value Majesty the Emperor of Russis, instructed Sunderland, Newcastle, &c. is unquestiona-with a special mission to his Majesty the Sing bly far less violent than it has shown itself ever, it has a variety of applications. It is on the Continent, or than the public fears the most malleable and ductile of all metals manifested the expectation of. In Sunder and it is not to be destroyed or diminished land the disease seems to have expended it- by air, water or fire. Gold then becomes the self; in other places it is wearing out, and spreading steadily among villages not before attacked. But still the number of cases is considerable, when compared with the population. The to Language 14th the text number of cases and perseverance. But as men may be who garrisoned and turnished with cannon.

Of cases from the commencement of the distribution of cases from the commencement of the distribution.

Self preservation is the chief principle of action in savige life, the cannot call the call the cannot call the call the call the cannot call the call t the remainder will speedily follow.

The reports from the 4th and 5th dis
Newcastle and Sunderland as Haddington, bitton. The reports from the 4th and 5th districts continue to announce that every thing tricts continue to announce that every thing and we cannot avoid expressing an opinion of the 4th district a reinforcement did cholera, the object of general dread and of troops is asked for; the Belgiaus on that discholera, the object of general dread and attention, is a disorder of another kind, however directly, as in the autiferous regions, where the sands of troops is asked for; the Belgiaus on that discholera, the object of general dread and attention, is a disorder of another kind, however directly, as in the autiferous regions, where the sands of troops is asked for; the Belgiaus on that attention, is a disorder of another kind, however directly, as in the autiferous regions, where the sands of troops is asked for; the Belgiaus on that attention, is a disorder of another kind, however directly, as in the autiferous regions, where the sands of troops is asked for; the Belgiaus on that attention, is a disorder of another kind, however directly, as in the autiferous regions, where the sands of troops is asked for; the Belgiaus on that attention, is a disorder of another kind, however directly, and the disease there reported as the spasms of the autiferous regions, where the sands of the spasms of the disease there reported as the spasms of the autiferous regions, where the sands of the spasms of the autiferous regions, and the autiferous regions as in the autiferous regions. of troops is asked for; the Belgiaus on that dic cholera, the object of general dread and part of the frontiers at West Capelle and of deaths; remaining 3.

Musarium on, Feb. 18.—No new cases, and of troops is asked for; the Belgiaus on that disconting on the frontiers at West Capelle and was to increase regularity and industry. It was to much the character of gambling; and which reached us this morning, allude to a dispute between the Belgiau and Dutch output alled an intelligent gentleman residing near to the frontiers, near Ghent; but it does not appear to have led to any serious that he feels convinced of the cases there is subject has recently been strengthened to the view and of the more certain means of subsistence are neglected; nosts, on the frontiers, near Ghent; but it does not appear to have led to any serious that he feels convinced of the cases there is subject has property, who tells in the first property and including the convenience of imprisons the first property of the mountains traced, to the detriment remorded being caused by the adulteration of the more certain nursuit of agriculture. consequences. The sentence of imprison-ment against M. Steven, the editor of the whiskey with aquafortis. Now this view, and ment against. M. Steven, the cultor of the whiskey with aquafortis. Now this view, and the occurrences at Gateshead during the still der of a lottery ticket that did not appropriational values of the highest prize; or a your for danages against his prosecutors. tion of sending all their idle members to the United States of Americs. A number of them have been already shipped, via Liverpool, and the last week another division sailed from Greenock in the ship Eldon, for New York the opinion that a state of atmospheric and tions that beguiled Alnaschar, or the milk Galicia, where a malignant typhus fever has low far that result may become a source of whom great numbers, as well as military citizens, and country people, have died of the second of to excite and to take alarm so easily, and discovered are in Brazil; yielding ten perntound reports of the existence of spasizodic weights to each bushel of the formation. It now is ascribed to the great fatigues endured by the troops employed on the frontiers as a which persons in the lower classes of life are that North Carolina produced gold, in which persons in the lower classes of life are that North Carolina produced gold, in which persons in the lower classes of life are that North Carolina produced gold, in which persons in the lower classes of life are that North Carolina produced gold, in which persons in the lower classes of life are that North Carolina produced gold, in which persons in the lower classes of the state is now admitted to be extremely the state is now admitted to be extremely providing for their subsistence while so em-ployed, the effects left behind by the cholera, ago we well remember a great mortality exago we well remember a great mortality ex-isted in the town and neighbourhood of Not-ties have been searched, and large masses of tingham from cholers, which was also unu- gold occasionally found. One weighed tweesually fatal in the South of England. This occurred during the plumb season. But the cating of this unwholesome fruit seemed to be only an exciting cause where some prediscipations of the cating of the cating cause where some prediscipations of the cating cause where some prediscipations of the cating the c osition existed, for we knew of several cases stream, found all marks of gold to cesse and where no plumbs had been cuten, although denivat a certain place. At this spot he some improper dieting had most probably been perceived a vein of quartz running into the We may confidently state that nothing.

which has hitherto occurred in this country made for other veins, and they were found since the first report of cholera, has in the in nine counties, which are to appearance in leat degree justified the sympathy and slarm so generally expressed by the timid and the week. In Sunderland, M. Magendie informed never been found in the veins, but are wholly ed us a stranger would not have known that confined to the alluvial deposits, and often an epidemic so malignant and fatal existed, if not so informed; for the inhabitants pursued. Gold to the amount of $20,000 has been ed their business and pleasures as usual, thus found in a very small space, which conwhile as the distance increased from the seat | tained one lump of nine pounds while as the distance increased from the seat of the disease the public terror became more intensely manifested, and before he set off for Sunderland he was regarded as a martyr. We can make allowances for some classes of medical practitioners sounding the trump of alarm upon the occurrence of a case of snamms. In the veins the richness of two which the gold is not visible best repay the cost of working. Twenty grains to a bushel will pay all charges and medical practitioners sounding the trump of interest on mining capital. Wood is cheap alarm upon the occurrence of a case of snamms. alarm upon the occurrence of a case of spasms, and inexhaustible; the mining regions are fer for fears and motives will exist among them: tile, labour cheap, and the climate not partibut among the practised military medical of-The Chancellor of Exchequer defended the proceedings of Government, and contended that they were justified in the steps they had taken.

ENGLAND.

BIRTH DAY OF WASHINGTON.

On Wednesday the twenty second instant the centennial birth day of the heroic leader of the Republic of American was celebrated by the Americans resident here. Mr. Ogden, the efficient and able representative of the twenty of the spasmodic cholera indicate that the soldier, from his regular good feeding and of the southern section. It is known that gold exists in Virginia, South Carolina, and Georgia.

The reviewer gives some statistics on the subject of gold; many of which, however, are of the precious metals recorded in history, is ordinary cholera or cholic. The frequent alarms, the fuss and parade, which are perpetlarms, the fuss and parade, which are perpetually making around us, and keeping the public mind in a state of nervous excitement, according to the custom of the merchants. the cannot have any other than a bad influence; Gold was in early times monopolized by the for and we hope that those who are so ready to sovereigns, and immense quantities were held for "wolf" will consider the moral responsiin single hands. mount of 15,000,000 dollars. Xeres took with him on his expedition against Greet at mount of 15,000,000 dollars. The same of the places, particular at Hanna, Wishaden, &c. in which the soldiers joined with the crowd in which the soldiers joined with the crowd in which the same as a near appreximation to the duty of all the deaths that are reported by the Central board of Health, being really cases of cholers at all, either British or any other.

Parts, Feb. 19.

Our accounts from the North of Europe to Branch and the North of Europe to Branch and the Common, which halies who now believes that the cholera at all, either British or any other.

Parts, Feb. 19.

Our accounts from the North of Europe to the place of the not being cases of cholers at all, either British or any other.

Parts, Feb. 19.

Our accounts from the North of Europe to the place of th ility they meur, and the ridicule and con-There is not a man to be met with on the Exchange who now believes that the cholera activity in preparing for war is perceptible in the public departments of Prussia, Russia, day upon the authority lof our Paris corresed in by the very meagre returns made from and Austria, while others, on which French Minister of Foreign species, and not contagious; and although we working of mines was absoluted and the activity in preparing for war is perceptible in the public departments of Prussia, Russia, day upon the authority lof our Paris corresed with the Indian epidemic, is a modified period and the reign of the reign of the reign of the reign of mines was absoluted and the activity in preparing for war is perceptible in the flow of the reign of mines was absoluted and the activity in preparing for war is perceptible in the flow of the reign of older medical authors distinctly describe as an epidemic in this country. The continue progress of cholers from Jessore to Russia, as laid down in the cholers maps, has been doubted from strict reference to the dates of disease which those who have seen it in India and Russia usually describe as of an unifer

GOLD.

The last American Quarterly Review hus long article upon a scarce commodity, from which we learn that the consumption, by attrition, and for the arts, is at present its secondary use. It would be worth mach pursue wealth, they would be a great deal act upon the more ennobling feeling of am-

El Dorado has existence in every gold her-The principal gold that is now obtained by

For thirty years the beds of the hank at right angies with the stream, and in this he found gold. A search was instantly made for other veins, and they were found Crossus gave to the practe of Delphi the a-mount of 15,000,000 dollars. Xerxes took as low as $4,000,000 sterling. The mines first opened after unrils were those of. Hungairy, Bohemia, Saxony and the Tyrol, and these so much increased the circulating medium, that it failed the price of necessaries, even before the discovery of America. Great was the depression of prices in England during the Heptarchy, coin had almost disappeared, and vicits were paid in what was called living money, or cattle and slaves.

Before the conquest of Mexico, the annual receipts of the Spaniards did nor exceed $250,000; but in Mexico they found accumulated treasures of the sovereigns, and others lated treasures of the sovereigns, and others in Peru. Naw mines were opened and the receipts amounted to upwards of 83,000,000, amounting in twenty-five years to one half of the metals then in circulation, the whole of which may have been £34,000,000 sterling The consumption was increased-a taste for The consumption was increased—a taste for costly ornaments prevailed, and rich offerings were made to churches. The mines of Potosi for many years added more than $2,000,000, and other mines increased the supply. In one hundred years from the discovery of America, deducting the exportation to India, America, deducting the exportant of mina-the circulating specie was quadrupled in a-mount, and commodities changed their nomi-al value by an advance in the ratio of five to one. In 1700, the total amount of coin in Europe was, it is supposed, Larry00,000 sterling, and the quantity steadily uncreased for the next century. But the recolution in Spanish Colonies was fital to the mines, and the products of the European mines has decreased.

CUM

11000

Berk.

Bedf Sprir

Clear

Belle

With this dimunition has come an increas. ed demand. Tea, which was first used about 17:0, cannot now be taken without spoons. which now take up more silver than was em lyears ago. Spoons and forks require half the silver that is manufactured in Great

The consumption of silver, in plate, is in that country 1,275,316 oz; the quantity used in plated ware is 900,000 oz; 500,000 oz. are d in watch cases, and in other things nearfirtures is almut double that of silver. Taking into consideration this, and the loss by abrasion in circulation, and the drain to East Indies, it is supposed that since 1809 the circulating specie has been reduced ne sixth, and that it is now £313,000,000 sterling. This decrease, which seems likely to continue, will much reduce the money prices; though the influence of paper money od credit may somewhat sustain them.

Margiand Cazette.

ANNAPOLIS: Thursday, April 5, 1832.

NOTICE.

The voters of Anne Arundel county and he city of Annapolis, friendly to the re-elecof Andrew Jackson, are respectfully invited to attend at Annapolis on the WED-NESDAY succeeding the first Monday in court, to take into consideration the propriery function of May next for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Vice-Presidency. Our friends of the neighbouring county of Prince-George's, are respectfully invited to co-operate. MANY VOTERS.

The Baltimore Republican is requested to give this notice a few insertious.

NEW POST OFFICES. A Post Office has been established at Mar-riotville, another at Sykesville, both on the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road. The Post Master General has informed the | was s

Post Master (John Thomas, Jr.) at Newton and e Trap, that the name of the Post Office is changed to JEFFERSON, Frederick county

Publishers of papers &c. who send papers to the above post office will please notice the change and change the direction of their packages to Jefferson Md.

APPOINTMENTS
BY THE BALTIMORE CONFERENCE,
MARCH, 1832. BALTIMORE DISTRICT-ALFRED GRIF-

Baltimore City—John, Davis, S. G. Roszell, J. L. Gibbons, T. H. W. Monroe, H. S. Keppler, J. A. Collins

Sharp and Arbury streets—John C. Lyon. East Baltimore—John Bear, Thomas B Sargent. Ballimore Circuit-R. Cadden, John Bowen, N. B. Mills, sup.

Severn—Jacob Larkin, James Riley.
Annapolis—Job Guest. Calvert-Philip B. Lipscomb, Charles Kalb-Prince George's-William Edmonds.

Saint-Mary's -John Smith, Francis M. Mills. Ebenezer-Tobias Riley.
Montgomery-Andrew Hemphill, W. O. Lumbeden.
POTOMAC, DISTRICT-HERRY SLICER,

P. F. Alizandria Norval Wilson. Foundry-James M. Hauson, George Georgetown-Henry Furlong. Fairfar-J Housewort, W. Evans, J.

Chalmers, sup-Lessburg—Chartes A Davis.
Louden—Thomas J. Dorsey, F. McCartney. Stafford Bdward R. Allen. Jacob Lanius. Dumfries, Stephen Smith.

Fredericksburg. Hezekish Best.

Laneaster. J. Berkley, G. G. Brook.

Westmoreland. Richard Brown.

LOS